MASTERS MESSAGE

Brethren, April is here and another month is on us. We're going to make 2014 the best Masonic Year ever, so why not come along for the ride. On the 1st of April is our Stated Meeting which includes a free dinner. In March we had 15 brethren munching on the vitals with no complaints, so come on down and break bread with your brethren. This month's chaw wagon consists of Turkey with all the trimmings. Rick Garnett is our chef with SW, Steve Ferguson assisting.

On the 10th is our yearly visitation to Concordia Lodge in Spokane. This is a lot of fun and there work is a little different, (interesting). We will meet at our lodge at 5:30 pm and caravan over. Their meal starts at 6:30 pm and Lodge at 7:30 pm. Hope to see you there. In return, Concordia makes a visit to our lodge in May of each year.

We have an E.A. Degree on the 8th. Please mosey on down and help make this a memorable event for our new Brother Mason.

On April 22nd we will be holding practices for Brethren who want their Wardens Certificates. A great way to earn the easiest Masonic Certificate.

I know that I keep putting this in here, but your lodge needs to tackle a few challenges for 2014. A new roof, new air conditioner, painting the inside of lodge, converting lighting system from ballasts to digital. Also, any brother that may have some unwanted tools, please consider donating them to your lodge. WE ARE IN NEED!!

I'm hoping you have had a chance to try our lodge web site:

At our Kootenai 24 site you can download your Trestleboard and see what is going on. Please give it a try. We have also included, Eastern Star. Take a peek.

Respectfully & Fraternaly,
Paul A. Telebar, Worshipful Master
